Evacuation Route Exercise Planned for Nanoose Bay

Residents of Nanoose Bay are reminded that an evacuation route exercise is planned for February 13, 2020. The exercise is scheduled to take place along major routes between 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 p.m. and traffic in the area will be affected. The exercise is designed to test proposed evacuation options to effectively time an evacuation within Nanoose Bay in the event of a small or large-scale evacuation. Please see the map below to view the evacuation routes that will be followed in this exercise.
