Share your thoughts about the Nanaimo-Cowichan Express!

NANAIMO, COWICHAN VALLEY – BC Transit, the Regional District of Nanaimo (RDN) and the Cowichan Valley Regional District (CVRD) are looking for feedback from transit customers on the first anniversary of the 70 NCX Nanaimo-Cowichan Express from April 3 until April 17, 2023.

BC Transit is looking to get feedback that will help fine-tune the service. This includes getting information about trip times, the limited stop policy and the possibility of expansion.

The 70 NCX Nanaimo-Cowichan Express was implemented in March 2022. The route was designed to provide all-day express service between Nanaimo and Duncan.

Starting today until April 17, passengers can visit engage.bctransit.com/ncx2023 to take part in this survey.

Paper surveys will be available at the following locations:

- CVRD Head Office (175 Ingram St., Duncan)
- Ladysmith Resources Centre Association (630 2nd Ave., Ladysmith)
- RDN Administration and Transportation Office Buildings (6300 Hammond Bay Rd., Nanaimo)
- Vancouver Island University (Fifth St. Building 193, Upper Level, Nanaimo)
- Oceanside Place Arena (830 West Island Highway, Parksville)
- Ravensong Aquatic Centre (737 Jones Street Qualicum Beach)
