New Evacuation Order and Alert for the Wesley Ridge Wildfire

Due to changing conditions, a new evacuation order and a new evacuation alert were issued late in the evening Friday, August 1 for additional properties in Little Qualicum River Village due to the Wesley Ridge wildfire. The order and alert can be viewed at rdn.bc.ca/current-alerts. Emergency responders are notifying those impacted directly.

Residents and visitors affected by the orders and alerts can call the Emergency Operations Call Centre at 250-390-6538 or visit the RDN website for updates at rdn.bc.ca/current-alerts. We remind residents who have been ordered to evacuate that they can go to the reception centre located at the Qualicum Beach Civic Centre at 747 Jones Street.

Residents are encouraged to sign up for emergency alerts to receive emergency alerts directly from the RDN through Voyent Alert, visit rdn.bc.ca/emergency-program.

Residents are asked to stay out of the area of the fire response to avoid interfering with any aerial apparatus response. Please do not go on the lake, operate drones, enter the area on foot or stop on the highway.

Wildfire safety reminders:Get Involved RDN!

- During a wildfire, it is likely smoke will be visible in surrounding areas. If it is smokey in your area, it is best to stay indoors and close your windows when possible.
- Avoid all areas near the wildfire, obey signage and give fire crews the space to work.
- The operation of any aircraft not associated with fire suppression activities, including drones and unmanned aerial vehicles (UAVs), near a wildfire is illegal. It also poses a serious threat to the safety of the fire crews.
