

Archaeological Sites Declaration

(To be used in support of a Building Permit Application)

Project Address:
Legal Description:

It has been identified that the above noted property is located in an archaeological area. Archaeological sites are protected under the Heritage Conservation Act (HCA) and must not be altered or damaged without a permit issued by the Province of British Columbia's Archaeology Branch.

Confirmation of permit application or correspondence from the BC Archaeology Branch is required prior to building permit issuance for properties identified as a protected archaeological site. The RDN would like to advise you that no land alteration is permitted prior to building permit issuance.

The undersigned being the agent/owner of the above noted property acknowledge that the property is located in an archaeological area and understand the requirements detailed in the attached document Protected Archaeological Sites in British Columbia.
