SUBJECT: Timing Options for Electoral Area Services Committee, Committee of the Whole

and Board Meetings

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the start time of the Electoral Area Services Committee meetings be moved to 9:00 am and Committee of the Whole meetings be moved to 1:00 pm.

2. That the start time of the Board meetings be moved to 1:00 pm.

SUMMARY

Directors have recently raised the idea of changing the current timing and date of the 1:30 pm Electoral Area Services Committee (EASC); and 3:00 pm Committee of the Whole (COW). Consideration of the Tuesday 7:00 pm Board Meetings has been canvassed.

It is proposed to change the start time of EASC meetings to 9:00 am and COW meetings to 1:00 pm. The Board meetings are proposed to be changed from a 7:00 pm to a 1:00 pm start time.

The wider separation of times between the EASC and COW meetings will provide more time for both the EASC and COW business, while continuing to be efficient for all Directors' attendance. Additionally, this would provide more time during the business day for COW business. Further, this avoids moving the EASC to a different day of the week, which is very difficult to accomplish in amongst all the additional 30 to 40 committee and other meetings also scheduled.

A 1:00 pm start time for Board meetings would enable delegations to attend the Board meeting over the lunch hour and would also enable attendance by those who may otherwise have family commitments in the evening. For context and information, all other Vancouver Island Regional Districts, including Metro Vancouver, schedule their Board meetings during the daytime, with the exception of one that alternates the start time of Board meetings between the daytime and evening. Statistics beginning in May 2019, show the number of members of the public attending Board, EASC and COW meetings averaged 8 per meeting for the period of May 2019 to March 2020 with several instances of 0 members of the public.

BACKGROUND

Electoral Area Directors expressed concern that there were too many items on the EASC agenda to complete in the allotted 90 minutes and suggested more time is needed for the EASC meetings or the agendas for the EASC meetings need to be shortened.

Shortening the agendas for the EASC meetings represents an operational challenge as it means delaying development permits, development variance permits and temporary use permits for at least one month if not more depending on the volume to be referred to the EASC.

The second option is to extend the duration of the EASC meetings from 90 to 120 minutes. While most of the EASC meetings are completed within the 90-minute time frame currently allotted, there have been instances where the Committee has been pressed for time. Changing the EASC start time to 9:00 am would facilitate a 120-minute meeting while still having provided time for the EASC Directors to converse with staff before the start of the COW at 1:00 pm.

Holding the EASC on another day is not recommended as there is greater inconvenience for the Directors who must travel to attend on two separate days, one for the EASC and another for the COW, which is accompanied by the increased cost of an additional attendance. Consideration of the timing of the other select committees, such as Transit, Regional Parks and Trails and Solid Waste Management Select Committee, in relation to a new time for the EASC would need to take place. In addition, continued coordination of the timing of these select committees with the schedules of the municipalities is crucial.

If the EASC is to be on its own day, because of the legislative timelines required to send out the resulting public notices, it would need to be moved to the week prior to COW, preferably on Tuesday. However, this would be least efficient for agenda preparation as it creates another agenda cycle to meet. It would also decrease the time that the public has to submit their applications to the Planning Department and having the potential to delay consideration of the application by a month, which is a significant detraction from our level of public service.

The COW meeting starting at 1:00 pm would provide more time for the COW meetings to be conducted during business hours. The current 3:00 pm start time has resulted in meetings going well into the evenings on several occasions, particularly when there are Closed meetings that are held following the Open portion of the COW. As some Directors have mentioned changing the time of the COW meetings, this change may address all timing matters for both committees.

The change of the timing of the Board meetings from 7:00 pm to a 1:00 pm. would enable delegations to attend the Board meeting over the lunch hour and would also enable attendance by those who may otherwise have family commitments in the evening. For context and information, all other Vancouver Island Regional Districts, including Metro Vancouver, schedule their Board meetings during the daytime, with the exception of one that alternates the start time of Board meetings between the daytime and evening. As stated earlier in this report, the number of members of the public attending Board, EASC and COW meetings has averaged only 8 per meeting, with several instances of 0 members of the public. The RDN also implemented live streaming of these meetings in July 2019, reducing the need for the public to be in physical attendance. In addition, staff would not be required to incur overtime for an evening meeting.

ALTERNATIVES

- That the start time of the Electoral Area Services Committee meetings be moved to 9:00 am and Committee of the Whole meetings be moved to 1:00 pm or,
- 2. That the Electoral Area Services Committee meetings be moved to the Tuesday prior to the Committee of the Whole starting at 9:00 am, with the Committee of the Whole remaining on the 2nd Tuesday of the month starting at 1:00 pm.
- 3. That the start time of the Board meetings be moved to 1:00 pm.
- 4. That the Board provide alternate direction.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

There would be additional cost for the additional travel of the EA Directors to attend on two separate days if the EASC is moved to a separate day. If the Board meetings were held during the day then there would be overtime savings.

STRATEGIC PLAN IMPLICATIONS

Delay Well

Good governance is a key value in the Board Strategic Plan for 2019 – 2022.
