

Who is eligible to vote as a resident elector?

To vote in the assent vote (referendum) as a resident elector, you must meet ALL of the following requirements:

- you will be age 18 or older on general voting day;
- you are a Canadian citizen;
- you have been a resident of British Columbia for at least 6 months immediately before the day of registration (advance or general);
- you are a resident of the municipality or electoral area (as per Section 67 of the Local Government Act);
- you are not disqualified by law from voting; and
- you are registered to vote.

What does “resident” mean?

Section 67 of the Local Government Act contains rules for determining residence:

1. The following rules apply to determine the area in which a person is a resident:
 - (a) A person is a resident of the area where the person lives and to which, whenever absent, the person intends to return;
 - (b) A person may be the resident of only one area at a time for the purposes of this Part;
 - (c) A person does not change the area in which the person is a resident until the person has a new area in which the person is a resident;
 - (d) A person does not cease being a resident of an area by leaving the area for temporary purposes only.
2. As an exception to subsection (1), if
 - (a) a person establishes for the purposes of attending an educational institution a new area in which the person is a resident that is away from the usual area in which the person is a resident, and
 - (b) the new area is away from the usual area in which the person is a resident, the person may choose for the purposes of this Part either the usual area or the new area as the area in which the person is a resident.

Can I pre-register to vote?

No, a resident elector cannot pre-register to vote. The voters list was prepared using the most current available provincial list of voters on January 15, 2025. A person may only register as an elector at the time of voting at either one of the advanced opportunities (March 26, 2025, or April 2, 2025) or on general voting day (April 5, 2025).

To find out if you are on the voters list, please visit the Regional District of Nanaimo Administration Office, Legislative Services Department, located at 6300 Hammond Bay Road in Nanaimo, during regular office hours, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday to Friday, or call (250) 390-4111 and toll free at 1-877-607-4111.

How do resident electors register to vote?

If you are not on the voters list, you can register at the time of voting by completing an application form. You will be asked to provide two pieces of identification that prove who you are and where you live. One of them must have your signature on it.

If the two pieces of identification do not provide proof of residence, you may make a solemn declaration as to your place of residence.

What are acceptable documents for voter registration?

Acceptable documents for providing proof of identity and residence are as follows:

- BC Driver's License
- BC ID card issued by the Motor Vehicle Branch
- ICBC Owner's Certificate of Insurance and Vehicle License
- BC Care Card or BC Gold Care Card
- Ministry of Housing and Social Development Security Request for Continued Assistance (form SDES8)
- Social Insurance card
- Citizenship Card
- Property tax notice
- Credit card or debit card
- Utility bill (electricity, natural gas, water, telephone or cable services)

When I register to vote with the Regional District, will my name be added to the provincial voters list?

Yes. When you register as a resident elector, your information will be forwarded to Elections BC, to be included in the provincial voters list.

What does "disqualified from voting" mean?

You may not vote in a British Columbia local government election if you:

- have been convicted of an indictable offence and are in custody; or
- have been found guilty of an election offence.
